Dear Valued Customer,

As previously stated in our January 6 customer notice, Young Brothers had to immediately adjust our Port of Kahului operations due to the effects of COVID-19 on the health and safety of our employees. As we continue to collaborate with various agencies to manage this exposure, below is an update to cargo acceptance at the Ports of Honolulu and Kahului for the week of January 10, 2022. There are no changes to cargo acceptance at any other port.

Our customer service team will reach out to all affected customers to rebook any affected cargo to the next sailing.

We will continue to monitor the situation and will re-evaluate cargo acceptance as the situation improves and will notify customers of any changes. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this postponement may have caused as we continue to look after the health of all our employees, our customers, and our vendors.

Young Brothers encourages its customers to visit our website at www.youngbrothershawaii.com and follow us on social media for the most up-to-date information on sailing schedule and cargo. The health and safety of our customers and our employees is our top priority. We appreciate your cooperation and understanding, as we navigate these trying and challenging times.

Sincerely,
 Young Brothers, LLC
