

OPERATIONAL UPDATES: TROPICAL STORM NOLO

Sept. 23, 2026

Dear Valued Customer,

Young Brothers is closely monitoring Tropical Storm Nolo in coordination with the U.S. Coast Guard and relevant state agencies. The storm is forecasted to strengthen into a major hurricane over the next few days. Accordingly, YB will adjust its sailing schedule and cargo acceptance to mitigate these effects. YB will continue to provide updates on its operations as they become available.

Cargo Acceptance

In anticipation of severe ocean conditions and tropical storm force winds, Young Brothers will modify cargo acceptance:

- For sailings to Nāwiliwili and Kahului on Thursday, Sept. 24, 2026, all refrigerated and straightload hazardous cargo will be accepted. NO livestock, or less than container load hazardous cargo will be accepted.
- NO livestock, refrigerated cargo, or less than container load hazardous cargo will be accepted for the rest of the week for all other sailings.

Sailing Schedule Updates

Hilo to Honolulu sailing Thursday, Sept. 24, 2026

- The port of Hilo will not be accepting any refrigerated or hazardous cargo destined for Honolulu.

Honolulu to Kawaihae sailing Thursday, Sept. 24, 2026 – CANCELLED

- The port is expected to operate normal gate hours on Thursday, Sept. 24, 2026, for the acceptance of cargo.
- The port will not be accepting any livestock, refrigerated cargo, or hazardous cargo.
- The port is expected to be CLOSED on Friday, Sept. 25, 2026, as determined by the United States Coast Guard (USCG).
